

EIKEN Pre- 2nd Speaking Lesson 10

A NEW SUPERMARKET SERVICE

Recently, more supermarkets in Japan have started a new kind of service. These stores deliver food and other goods to people's homes. As a result, people can get what they need without going to the store. Some supermarkets take orders over the internet, so they can give their customers better service.

A

B

QUESTIONS

No. 1 According to the passage, how can some supermarkets give their customers better service?

No.2 Now, please look at the people in Picture A. They are doing different things. Tell me as much as you can about what they are doing.

No. 3 Now, look at the man in Picture B. Please describe the situation.

Now, Mr./Ms. _____, please do not look at the picture.

No. 4 Do you think supermarkets should stay open 24 hours a day?

Yes. —————> Why?

No. —————> Why not?

No. 5 Many foreign people come to Japan to study the Japanese language.
Would you like to teach Japanese to them?

Yes. —————> Please tell me more.

No. —————> Why not?

SAMPLE ANSWERS

No. 1 They give better service by taking orders over the internet.

No. 2 *A woman is wrapping a box.
A woman is copying something using a copier machine.
A man is pushing a cart.
A man is closing an umbrella.
A woman is mopping the floor.*

No. 3. He wants to wash his hands, but there isn't any soap.

No. 4 Yes. Busy people want to buy food late at night. Supermarkets sell many kinds of fresh food.

No. Many convenience stores are open 24 hours a day. People can usually find what they need at the convenience store.

No. 5 Yes. There are many foreign students in my town. I want to help them to learn about Japan.

No. I don't know how to teach Japanese. It's necessary to have some training to teach it.

